

should be either 'Route' or 'Vire,' the last named being now the usual name employed.

Kaufmann is an unknown name in the Nicolaital.

I regret to appear somewhat hypercritical, but it appears to me that Mr. Abraham has not taken sufficient trouble in editing his work. However, in spite of its defects, Mr. Abraham's book is worth the attention of the mountaineer, and, in conclusion, I should like to express unstinted admiration of the very beautiful and well-chosen series of photographic illustrations which are beyond criticism.
